STAGE COACHED (Krazy Kat)

Produced by
Charles B. Mintz

Distributed by
Paramount Famous Lasky Corp.

Krazy Kat rides the rails into a tough Western town. He sees a girl in a stage coach and falls in love with her immediately. She spurns his love and falls for two husky Westerners. Krazy Kat vows he will win her love.

He dons the make-up of a cowboy and goes out riding on a horse. The two handsome Westerners are really bandits and they hold up the stage coach. Krazy Kat rushes to the rescue of the fair maiden. He grabs her and rides away, the bandits pursuing.

After much trouble with them, Krazy Kat pulls out a cigar and blows smoke rings around the bandits and ties them up. He returns with the stage coach and his captives. He is cheered and complimented by the sheriff. Just as he is about to receive the reward, his head swells with pride and he floats up into the sky.

THE END.
